

2nd TERM 1st ENGLISH EXAM FOR 7th GRADES

NAME:.....

NUMBER:..... CLASS:7/.....

A) Read the text and answer the questions. (E7.6.R1)

Lisa and her friends organize surprise parties for their teachers every year. They enjoy working together and making their teachers happy. First, they prepare a guest list and decide who to invite. Then, they decorate the classroom with balloons, posters, and colorful lights. After that, they prepare food and drinks. Some students bring homemade cakes, and others buy snacks and fruit juice. They also choose cheerful music for the party and practice a short welcome speech. Finally, they give a small gift to their teacher and celebrate the special day together.

1. What do Lisa and her friends do every year?
2. Why do they organize these parties?
3. What do they do after preparing the guest list?
4. What kind of food and drinks do they prepare?
5. What do they do at the end of the party?

B) Look at the notes and write an invitation card. (E7.6.W1)

- Event: Graduation Party
- Date: June 10
- Time: 6 p.m.
- Place: School Garden
- Inviter: You and your classmates
- Invitee: Your Teachers

Our Dear,

C) Read the dialogue and answer the questions. (E7.7.R1)

Mia: What do you think about your future, Jack?

Jack: I think I will become a scientist. I want to invent new things.

Mia: That sounds great! Where will you live?

Jack: I will probably live in a big city because there are more things to do. What about you?

Mia: I think I will be a teacher. I love helping people learn new things.

Jack: That's nice. Will you work in a big city too?

Mia: No, I won't. I prefer living in a small town because it is quieter.

Jack: Will you travel in the future?

Mia: Yes, I will travel to different countries and meet new people.

1. What does Jack want to be in the future?

2. Why will Jack live in a big city?

3. What does Mia want to be?

4. Why does Mia prefer a small town?

D) Write about your future life. (E7.7.W1)

Write 5 sentences about your future. Use “will / won't / probably/ definitely/ I hope/ I believe / I guess”.

You can use these titles:

- * job
- * place
- * family life/ marriage
- *travel
- * life
- *house
- *car

A) Read the text and answer the questions. (E7.6.R1)

Lisa and her friends organize surprise parties for their teachers every year. They enjoy working together and making their teachers happy. First, they prepare a guest list and decide who to invite. Then, they decorate the classroom with balloons, posters, and colorful lights. After that, they prepare food and drinks. Some students bring homemade cakes, and others buy snacks and fruit juice. They also choose cheerful music for the party and practice a short welcome speech. Finally, they give a small gift to their teacher and celebrate the special day together.

1 What do Lisa and her friends do every year? They organize surprise parties for their teachers.

2 Why do they organize these parties? Because they enjoy working together and making their teachers happy.

3 What do they do after preparing the guest list? After preparing the guest list, they decorate the classroom.

4 What kind of food and drinks do they prepare? They prepare homemade cakes and buy snacks and fruit juice.

5 What do they do at the end of the party? They give a small gift to their teacher and celebrate the special day together.

B) Look at the notes and write an invitation card. (E7.6.W1)

- Event: Graduation Party
- Date: June 10
- Time: 6 p.m.
- Place: School Garden
- Inviter: You and your classmates
- Invitee: Your Teachers

Our Dear Teachers,

We will have our graduation party, on the tenth of June at 6 p.m. in the school garden. We would like to see you in our party.

with Love and Respect

Your students

C) Read the dialogue and answer the questions. (E7.7.R1)

Mia: What do you think about your future, Jack?

Jack: I think I will become a scientist. I want to invent new things.

Mia: That sounds great! Where will you live?

Jack: I will probably live in a big city because there are more things to do. What about you?

Mia: I think I will be a teacher. I love helping people learn new things.

Jack: That's nice. Will you work in a big city too?

Mia: No, I won't. I prefer living in a small town because it is quieter.

Jack: Will you travel in the future?

Mia: Yes, I will travel to different countries and meet new people.

1.What does Jack want to be in the future?

He wants to be a scientist in the future.

2.Why will Jack live in a big city?

Because there are more things to do in a big city.

3.What does Mia want to be?

She wants to be a teacher.

4.Why does Mia prefer a small town?

Because a small town is quieter than a big city.

D) Write about your future life. (E7.7.W1)

Write 5 sentences about your future. Use “will / won't / probably/ definitely/ I hope/ I believe / I guess”.

You can use these titles:

* job * place * family life/ marriage

*travel * life *house *car

I will definitely be a (meslek)

I guess I will live in a big city/ a small town. (seçmeli)

I will probably get married and have two children. / I won't get married.(seçmeli)

I hope I will travel a lot of cities and countries.

I will have a healthy life because I do sports regularly.

I guess I will buy a big house with a garden. / I will live in a flat. (seçmeli.)

I will drive a sports car. (I won't drive a car. / I will probably buy a small car (seçmeli)

